

READING'S SLAVE LINKS QUIZ

1. Which leaders of the Anti-Slavery Movement are celebrated in the Black History mural on the former Central Club (RG1 4PS)?

2. How is this magnificent Regency/Victorian end of terrace town house at 45 London Rd connected to Barbados?

3. How did the Blagrove family acquire land in Jamaica?

4. Why was the owner of Purley Park, Ann Storer taken to court in 1824?

5. Who built Sidmouth House (now part of Kendrick School, 41 London Rd RG1 5BN)?

6. Where did the 49th Regiment of Foot (which later became the Royal Berkshire Regiment) originate?

7. Where can you see these slave shackles?

8. What is the connection between Highdown School and Admiral Arthur Forrest?

9. When did Reading first present a petition to Parliament for the abolition of slavery?

10. How much did Richard Benyon the Younger pay for a domestic slave for his Englefield Estate in 1775?